PRESIDENT RAYMOND DOOLEY

Dear Students:

"The year 1956-57 has been an outstanding one for Lincoln College. Our enrollment was the highest in the history of the school and we have completed a new men's residence, Olin-Sang Hall. I am sure that you will all agree with us that it is a splendid addition to the campus and one which will serve our young men for many, many years to come.

I want to take this opportunity to congratulate the members of the LYNXITE Staff who have prepared this fine yearbook and all the students who have given so generously of their time and talents. I sincerely hope that in years to come you will treasure the memory of your college days and that you will faithfully keep in touch with your alma mater.

Best wishes to all of you."

Raymond Dooley

DEAN ELVA BAILEY

Dear Students:

"These are the echoes of your experiences at Lincoln College. I hope the perspective of time will prove them to be even more valuable than you realized at the time of graduation.

Please return and visit with us often and keep the alumni office informed of your current status and address. Lincoln College will continue its interest in you and we hope your interest in the activities and growth of the college continues.

I extend the hope that each of you will leave here to take up a life rich in service and demanding of your talents.

Best wishes always."

The Lincoln Room contains a large number of valuable books on Lincoln and other interesting items connected with him. It is one of the main attractions of Lincoln College and each year many visitors come to see this room. The Lincoln Room is on the same floor as the Library in the Administration Building. It is said to be one of the most extensive collections on Lincoln in existence.

The Lincoln Room

The Museum of the Presidents

The Museum of the Presidents, located on the first floor of University Hall, was dedicated during Commencement, May 29, 1955. It is the first permanent exhibit ever created to honor the thirty-three men who have served this country as Chief Executive.

Centered in the room on a block of Vermont marble are five flags: those of the United States, the Christian Church, the State of Illinois, the Confederacy, and Lincoln College.

It is the first time an institution has memorialized the office rather than the man. It is only fitting that all of our Presidents collectively are honored at the first school named for the sixteenth president of the United States of America.

1957 Fling King, Jim Heinzel; and Homecoming Queen, Barbara Gutman.
after the crowning by 1956 King and Queen, Derek Payson and Shirley Cathey.
